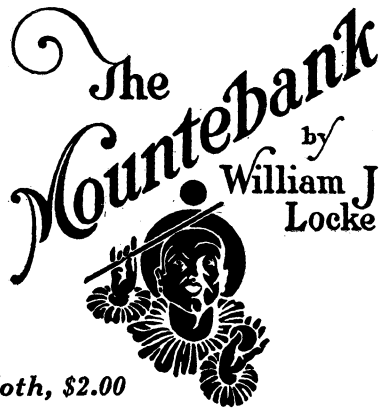
WILLIAM J. LOCKE'S

NEW BELOVED VAGABOND



Cloth, $2.00

"A novel of extraordinary power and dramatic intensity. Mr. Locke writes with all his accustomed brilliancy. The pungency of his wit is as alluring as in 'The Beloved Vagabond' or 'The Morals of Marcus Ordeyne,' novels which will long endure in English literature."
—Philadelphia Record.

AN AFRICAN ADVENTURE

By ISAAC F. MARCOSSON

Author of "Adventures in Interviewing," etc.
Fifty Illustrations. Cloth, $5.00

The story of the author's recent trip through South and Central Africa. Mr. Marcosson followed Henry M. Stanley's trail down the mighty Congo River through the cannibal country to the Congo diamond fields and shows these regions as they are today. The book is as fascinating as a work of fiction.

THE EARTHEN VESSEL

By PAMELA GLENCONNER

With an Introduction by Sir Oliver Lodge.
Cloth, $1.50

A notable book of spirit-communication, in the form of "Book-messages," providing fresh evidence of the continuity of life beyond the grave.

NEW 1921 BOOKS

IT MIGHT HAVE HAPPENED TO YOU

By CONINGSBY DAWSON

Author of "Carry on," "The Little House," etc. Cloth, $1.25

A contemporary portrait of Central and Eastern Europe which presents in word pictures the realistic truth of what Peace has done to Europe. The sanest first-hand description of civilization uprooted by Idealism and Violence yet presented. In depicting a world-wide problem the book provides a statesmanly solution.

THE TRUE STORY OF THE EMPRESS EUGÉNIE

By the COUNT DE SOISSONS

Eight Illustrations. 8vo. Cloth, $4.00

In this book the Count de Soissons tells for the first time in English the facts of the meteoric career of the Empress Eugénie. The candor of the book will likely cause a sensation but the author supports his account by references to contemporary documents.

ART AND I AUTHORS AND I

By C. LEWIS HIND

Author of "The Education of an Artist," etc.
Two volumes. Cloth, $2.50 each.

Mr. Hind chats easily about books, authors and artists he has known, as if he were talking to a friend by the fireside. At the right moment he introduces an appropriate anecdote, and, as he has omitted very few prominent names from his survey, his books will be welcomed as useful and entertaining sources of biographical gossip.

SHADOWS

By ALMA NEWTON

Author of "The Love Letters of a Mystic," etc.
Cloth, $1.50

A series of soul impressions, no two alike, yet all intensely fascinating, testifying eloquently to the author's skill in psychological analysis.
